BACKGROUND:

As part of the Government of Alberta's work in reviewing the delivery of its employment and training programs, the ministries of Advanced Education (AE), Community and Social Services (CSS, earlier Human Services) and Labour shifted responsibility for various existing programs. As part of the Mandate Alignment, Labour is the lead for Transition to Employment Services (effective April 1, 2016).

An initial technical review of the Transition to Employment Services policy has been completed.

Highlights of the policy and technical changes:

- 1) Identification of Labour as the program lead.
- 2) Removal of web links that are no longer relevant or point to a web page that has been removed.
- 3) Incorporated existing General Programs and Services Eligibility for Individuals.
- 4) Increasing the program short course funding to a maximum of $2500 per client.

INTENT:

Update the Transition to Employment Services policy manual to reflect the Mandate Alignment and provide additional clarity on program eligibility.
