BACKGROUND:

Workforce Development (WD) services are an element under Career Employment and Information Services.

WD Services consist of multiple components which include:

- Employment Development Activities
- Work Exposure
- Work Maintenance and Support
- Additional Support Activities
 - WD-Exposure Courses
 - WD-Employment Supports

WD Services are to help individuals:

- Develop skills to address and overcome identified barriers to employment
- Obtain and maintain employment,
- Develop skills needed for effective labour market attachment/re-attachment, and
- Connect with employers needing to fill jobs.

INTENT: To provide general direction and considerations for designated Authorized Officials assessing individuals for WD services, eligibility determination, and service management decisions.
