

Name of Agency: Regional Living Skills

Contact Person: Monica Hill

Address: #14 Southridge Crescent, Box 591
Didsbury AB T0M 0W0

Phone Number: 335-8312

Fax: 335-8312

Programs Provided: Residential
Community Options

Service Description:

- Regional Living Skills believes that people they serve are their priority
- People have equal rights and responsibilities
- Regional believes that everyone has the right to make choices, make their own decision and have the dignity of risk
- Regional believes in ensuring individuals safety in their homes, work and leisure through reasonable interventions and policies and procedure
- Regional directs their services by individual needs goals and aspirations
- Regional ensures that all individuals served by them have the right to be active members of their community

Residential:

- This service is provided to individuals who live in their own home
- Support is available twenty-four hours or less, as needed
- This service provides training and skills development opportunities
- This service provides the opportunity for an individual to become independent

Community Options:

- This service contains a high degree of community involvement
- Some of the activities included in this service are:
 - ❑ Camping
 - ❑ Involvement with the local theatre group
 - ❑ Going to sporting events
 - ❑ Playing sports
 - ❑ Concerts
- This service provides the opportunity for an individual to become active in the community through volunteering
- An individual's involvement in this program will decrease social isolation and increase social skills, communication and provide a sense of self-worth and increase self-esteem